International shoe brand operates from Baroda; opens showroom in St. Joseph

It's a case of 'hidden in plain sight'.

We're talking about an internationally successful shoe manufacturer that's headquartered right here in Southwest Michigan—but few people know about it. That's going to change, starting later this week, when Grant Stone Shoes opens its first-ever retail showroom location in downtown St. Joseph.

Wyatt Gilmore is the St. Joseph resident and Baroda native behind it all. But the story begins 65 years ago with Gilmore's grandfather who spent his life working in the shoe industry, making them and selling them. His father followed in that business, so it was natural for Wyatt to get involved in shoes after he went to Lakeshore Schools, moved away for high school and college, and then traveled to China in 2010 to learn about shoe manufacturing from a family in Xiamen that had been doing it for generations.

Gilmore told us he spent eight years at the Xiamen factory, learning the craft and Chinese culture along the way, and went on to create Grant Stone in 2016. The brand is named after Grant Stone, a friend of Wyatt's grandfather, who was a shoe salesman on the East Coast, known for his unwavering professionalism and "perfect gentleman" demeanor.

Gilmore said Grant Stone is centered on a "No-Compromise" Philosophy born from a desire to create high-end, Goodyear-welbed footwear, offering up to three widths, focusing strictly on the fundamentals of a good shoe.

He explained that Goodyear Welt Construction is the 'gold standard' of footwear. It allows the shoes to be completely resoled after years of wear, making them a "buy it for life" investment rather than a disposable product.

The quality of materials and workmanship commands an 'investment grade' price, $395 to $450 a pair. Gilmore said people are happy to pay it and drew a comparison to heritage, some would say 'iconic', brands like Florsheim, Red Wing and Allen Edmonds.

He said leather is sourced from the world's most prestigious tanneries, including Horween (Chicago), C.F. Stead (England), Meals on Wheels Update & HCM's Adopt-A-Pothole Campaign!

Two local non-profit organizations that we love supporting have some big and exciting things happening, and both just happen to be past winners of our Non-Profit Excellence award.

The first is Senior Nutrition Services Region IV, Inc., doing business as Meals on Wheels of Southwest Michigan, is proud to announce the launch of its new Medically Appropriate Home-Delivered Meals program, designed to support seniors living with chronic health conditions including diabetes, kidney disease, high blood pressure, and heart disease.

This innovative program is made possible through a generous "For Good" grant from the Berrien Community Foundation, with a special emphasis on expanding access to high-quality nutrition for seniors living in rural areas of Berrien County, where barriers to food access and healthcare are often greatest.

Medically appropriate meals are nutritionally balanced, home-delivered meals designed to support individuals managing diet-related health conditions. Meals are developed with input from a registered dietitian and follow established nutrition guidelines. When available, locally grown produce and proteins are incorporated to support both individual health outcomes and the regional agricultural economy. All meals are prepared locally by JA Food Services, a long-standing and trusted partner of Meals on Wheels of Southwest Michigan.

"Food is about so much more than just filling a plate. It plays a key role in health, independence, and quality of life," said Linda Tinsley, Executive Director of Meals on Wheels of Southwest Michigan. "We are intentional about offering meals made with nourishing ingredients, because our homebound seniors deserve food that truly supports their health. These meals help people manage ongoing health needs while honoring dignity, personal choice, and overall well-being." If you or your loved one needs these services, please contact our office at (269) 925-0137 for further information.

By introducing medically appropriate meals, Meals on Wheels of Southwest Michigan continues to evolve its services to meet the complex and growing needs of older adults, particularly those facing health challenges and geographic isolation. The program reinforces the organization's commitment to health-focused nutrition, local partnerships, and equitable access to services for seniors across the region.

Next up our friends at Harbor Country Mission (a 2-time Non-Profit Excellence winner) have some pretty BIG holes to fill in terms of the potholes in their parking lot. You may have seen they've launched an adopt-a-pothole campaign to help pave their parking lot moving forward.

Harbor Country Mission is a barrier-free organization dedicated to serving individuals and families in need throughout Southwest Michigan. Open 7 days a week, 365 days a year, HCM provides essential support, including food, clothing, household goods, furniture, appliances, and even pet supplies.

Unfortunately some rather large and dangerous potholes in the parking lot make it harder for seniors, families, volunteers, and donors to safely reach the building.

When you give to the Adopt-A-Pothole Fund, you help create safer access, protect vehicles, and make every visit more welcoming for the people who count on this mission.

Donations will go to fill dangerous potholes in the parking lot; support paving and safer access to the building; improve the experience for shoppers, donors, clients, and volunteers.

Those interested in donating can mail your donation to 9600 Red Arrow Hwy, Bridgman, MI 49106. To learn more about your Regional Chamber, as well as other member and partner organizations by visiting our website smrchamber.com. You can also see the full list of upcoming member and Chamber events, including ones with our affiliates the Buchanan Area Chamber of Commerce, Greater Bridgman Area Chamber & Growth Alliance; and the Greater Niles Chamber.

Want to connect directly - feel free to email or call sspoonholtz@smrchamber.com or 269-932-4040. See you around Southwest Michigan!

My Krustiest Kolumn Ever

One of my favorite attractions at Universal Studios theme park in Orlando is The Simpsons Ride.

It's situated in a "theme park within a theme park" – Krustyland, owned and operated by Krusty the Clown. (for those who don't watch "The Simpsons," Krusty is the egomaniacal, greedy, chain-smoking host of a children's television show, and founder of the Krustylu Studios empire). The attraction features scads and scads of characters from the loooooong-running Simpsons TV show and throughout the queue there's a multitude of quips and gags that make me laugh, and that could fill up several colu-----hey, I could just put as many of them as I can remember into a lengthy series of columns! I don't think it's plagiarism – it's a public service! Sharing joy and laughter with those who will never put their heinies in a seat on the Simpsons ride!

Let's start with something you see entering the ride queue – a map of Krustyland, showing where to find attractions such as:

- Krusty's Waterless Waterslide;
- Krusty's Spit 'n' Watch Aerial Gondolas;
- The Tilt 'n' Spew;
- Krusty's L.A. Traffic Jam;
- Sea Captain's Queasy-Time Lagoon Ride;
- Moe's Tunnel of Shame and Rejection;
- The Yardwork Simulator.

Explaining why his theme park prices are so high, Krusty says, "I may live in a house way bigger than yours and drive a car that runs on champagne, but you're going to have to buy a lot more merchandise if I'm going to be able to afford another sport coat made of Abe Lincoln's private diaries."

If the ride queue is long enough, you'll see various amusing short videos. One features Apu (owner of a convenience store in the TV show) who operates a food concession at Krustyland. He sympathizes with you for standing in a long line, and to relieve your boredom, he "entertains" by listing all the Prime Ministers of India. In reverse order.

Throughout the queue, there are promotions for coupons for:

- Krusty Brook Woods: Timeshare (a map shows the development is laid out in the shape of Krusty's face);
- Patty & Selma's Museum of Vacation Photos;
- Hot Time at the Tire Yard Fire Tour;
- Crazy Carl's Coupon Castle: present this coupon for 1/2 off another coupon;
- Sea Captains Seafood Shack: three-eyed fish for the price of two-eyed fish.

Promotional pitches for souvenirs and updates on ride status abound, such as:

- Hall of the Secretaries of the Interior- wait time 0:00;
- Glow in the Dark Necklaces- that die when you get home. $10;
- Krusty's Tribute to great theme park lines- wait time: 45 minutes;
- Krustyland Vacuum cleaner bags: remember your Krustyland vacation every vacuum day;
- The Newest Krustyland Sensation: Clown hair- looks like cotton candy with the clown hair taste kids love

After all this frivolity, when you finally get to the room with your ride vehicle, comes my favorite gag of them all. The set-up: Sideshow Bob, Krusty's much-abused sidekick, has escaped prison (for one of his many attempts to murder Bart Simpson) and taken over Krustyland! He appears on the ride's video monitors, threatening mayhem to you and the Simpsons! The view zooms in on his fiendish glare! The Simpsons scream in terror! He shouts (snarling), "Now, the LAST thing you'll EVER see!!! (abrupt switch to a dulcet and gentle tone)—a legally required safety video."

Glen & Shelly Head

Glen: Nestled in a cottage-lined neighborhood on the northeast side of Big Crooked Lake sits a historic pub that has been serving the Sister Lakes community for more than a century. Lakeview Inn is a storied eatery that has turned a new page, now owned by longtime team members Courtney and Katy Young.

“Both Katy and I have been working here for over 12 years,” Courtney shared. “In December, we had the opportunity to become the new owners. We’ve kept most of the menu that’s made this place endure for so long, but Katy’s added some extra flair to a few dishes.”

Lakeview Inn offers two distinct settings. The bar area leans cozy-cabin, while the spacious enclosed patio opens up to lake views. Powered see-through panels can be raised or lowered depending on the weather—letting in those fresh lake breezes while extending the dining season well beyond summer.

We kicked things off with a towering stack of Onion Rings—a longtime favorite. Thick-cut sweet onions are hand-dipped in a batter recipe passed down through the years. The crisp bite says it all, and the house-made ranch seals the deal. One ring in, and you’ll understand the legend status.

Reuben sandwiches are on my regular rotation, and this one delivered. Katy’s house brine keeps the corned beef tender, extra juicy and noticeably less salty than most, letting the flavors shine. Paired with seasoned fries that carry just the right amount of zip, it’s a combo worth repeating.

An ultra-tender 8 oz. sirloin steals the show on the Black and Blue Salad. Rich, beefy flavor meets generous chunks of bold blue cheese for a perfect balance of sharp and savory. The house-made blue cheese dressing ties it all together—no shortcuts here.

A New Chapter at Lakeview Inn

Familiar faces, fresh touches, and a century of lakeside tradition in Sister Lakes.

For the burger-curious (or the burger-brave), the Skool Daze Smash Burger is a must. Two smashed patties are topped with peanut butter, jelly, bacon, and fried onion strings. It sounds like a dare, but it eats like a dream—sweet, salty, silky, and crispy all at once. Served with tater tots, it’s a nostalgic trip back to the lunchroom...just significantly upgraded.

Locals rave about the pizza, so we tried the Buffalo Chicken and Mac. House-made sweet buffalo sauce meets creamy mac & cheese in a surprisingly balanced pairing. The buffalo doesn’t overpower—it complements. And the crust? I’ll go on record: one of the best in Van Buren County. Crisp where it should be, soft and yeasty on the inside. If you’re a crust person, this one’s calling your name.

Set your GPS for Lakeview Inn and discover a little lakeside charm with a whole lot of flavor.

Shelly: “Next time, I’m ordering the Italian Grinder—because this Italian gal already knows what she wants.”

Gilmore makes no apologies for producing his shoes in China. In fact, he sees it as one of his strong selling points: The 35-member factory team in Xiamen consists of career shoemak-ers, many of whom have worked with the Gilmore family for over 30 years.

Grant Stone operates from offices in its warehouse on First Street in Baroda. There are 13 employees here in Michigan, prior to the opening of the downtown retail showroom this weekend.

Gilmore put it this way: "While the brand has a global reach, its heart is here in Berrien County. The headquarters and main warehouse in Baroda serve as the hub for design, customer service, and distribution. This is our home." Learn more at: www.grantstoneshoes.com

Matheny says they'll have four pickup locations where clients can receive their food boxes, which will be a bit of a grab bag.

"Every week it'll be different, and so it's going to depend upon what's the freshest and best available. So it is sort of based on what's growing well and what's ready at the time. So it will be different each week, and you won't really know what's in it ahead of time."

Anyone can sign up for a subscription by May 27, and then the first pickup takes place on June 3, just as the season's fresh produce hits its stride. The pickups will continue every other week through mid-October.

Matheny says the Nutrition Exchange of Southwest Michigan works to provide better health outcomes in the region via better food distribution, and the BCF wanted to help.

"Folks can buy the fresh fruits and vegetables from the many amazing farms we have right here in our backyard. So it's as fresh as it

Bridgman Open Air Market reopens this Sunday, Mother's Day.

Market secretary Chelsea Hull tells us the weekly market has been held in the parking lot behind United Federal Credit Union at Lake Street and Red Arrow Highway for about ten years now, attracting hundreds of people each day. There will be more than 30 vendors on hand this year.

“We are an artisan market,” Hull said. “All local and handmade items. We do have some farmers, they’re local. So you can find anything from homemade cookies, you’ll find homemade candles, crafted items, crocheted items, wood-working, leather, we’ll have fresh meat, and then we’ll have fresh produce.”

Hull says the market has a lot of repeat customers because it’s such a great atmosphere in which to mingle.

“Our vendors really, truly try to make it a family-friendly atmosphere. There’s always someone laughing or giggling. We’re running around. You’ll see the board members out and about trying to greet everybody.”

The vendors include fan favorites Lynne and Gary’s Acres, Peacock Rocks, The Cookie Dealer, CH Designs, Cute Crochets, Rebecca’s Ceramics, and Blue Creek Leather, among many others. Animal Aid of Southwestern Michigan will also be there to adopt out some furry friends, and three food trucks have signed on for the year.

The Bridgman Open Air Market will be held each Sunday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. through October 12. Hall notes they’ll also hold special events at the market throughout the summer, including Kids Day in July and a Halloween celebration in October.

May Yard Prep: Unlock the Greenest Grass of Your Summer

As warmer days arrive in May, homeowners gain an ideal opportunity to prepare their lawns for a lush, vibrant green that endures through summer heat. Strategic steps taken now build stronger roots, thicker turf, and better resistance to drought and wear.

Start by testing your soil's pH and nutrient levels. Most grasses thrive in soil ranging from 6.0 to 7.0. Amend as needed with lime to raise pH or sulfur to lower it. Correcting imbalances early allows roots to absorb nutrients efficiently all season long.

Aerate compacted lawns to improve oxygen, water, and nutrient flow to the roots. If thatch exceeds half an inch, dethatch to remove dead material that can harbor disease and block sunlight. Perform these tasks on moist but not wet soil to reduce stress.

Adjust mowing habits for healthier growth. Keep grass at three to four inches tall for most varieties to promote deep roots and natural weed suppression. Never cut more than one-third of the blade at once. Leave clippings on the lawn to return nitrogen to the soil, cutting down on fertilizer needs. Sharp blades create clean cuts that heal faster and prevent disease entry.

Apply a slow-release, balanced nitrogen fertilizer in early to mid-May. This supports steady growth without forcing excessive top growth that increases water demand. Match the product to your grass type and follow application rates carefully. Water lightly after spreading to help nutrients reach the roots. Shift to smarter watering practices. Deliver about one inch of water per week in deep, infrequent sessions rather than light daily sprinkles. This encourages roots to grow deeper and builds drought tolerance. Water in the early morning to reduce evaporation and disease risk. Use rain gauges to avoid overwatering, which leads to shallow roots and soil compaction.

Control weeds before they compete with grass. Apply pre-emergent herbicides in early May to stop crabgrass and other annuals from sprouting. Treat existing broadleaf weeds with selective post-emergent products or pull them by hand when soil is moist. A thick, healthy lawn naturally resists weed invasion.

Overseed thin or bare patches to increase density. Use quality seed suited to your grass type, rake gently, and keep the area moist until new seedlings emerge. Denser turf crowds out weeds and withstands summer traffic better.

Monitor for early signs of pests such as grubs or chinch bugs. Address problems promptly with targeted treatments to prevent major damage. Supporting beneficial insects by limiting unnecessary chemicals helps maintain a natural balance in the yard.

Consistent effort throughout May yields the best results. Regular inspections catch small issues before they grow, while well-maintained equipment makes every task more effective. By focusing on these key preparations, homeowners can achieve a resilient, emerald lawn that requires less summer maintenance and delivers striking beauty.

Those who prepare thoroughly often enjoy the greenest, healthiest grass they have ever grown, transforming ordinary yards into impressive displays of vibrant turf.

Twin City Players Presents the Musical The Prom - June 5 - 28, 2026

Twin City Players presents the final production of its 2025-2026 93rd Mainstage Season, the hilarious and moving musical, The Prom, book & lyrics by Chad Beguelin, book by Bob Martin, music by Matthew Sklar, based on an original concept by Jack Viertel.

Four eccentric

Broadway stars are in desperate need of a new stage. So, when they hear that trouble is brewing around a small-town prom, they know that it's time to put a spotlight on the issue...and themselves. The town's parents want to keep the high school dance on the straight and narrow—but when one female student just wants to bring her girlfriend to prom, the entire town has a date with destiny. On a mission to transform lives, Broadway's brassiest join forces with a courageous girl and the town's citizens and the result is love that brings them all together. Drama Desk Award for Best Musical!

Tickets are $15 - $20 (plus a $1 fee per ticket). Purchase online at twincityplayers.org or through the box office at 269-429-0400. Performances are June 5 - 28, 2026, Friday & Saturday at 7:30 pm and Sunday at 2 pm, at the TCP Playhouse, 600 W. Glenlord Road, St. Joseph, MI. Opening Night complimentary wine provided by Golden Muse Winery. A special event, Pride Night at The Prom, will be held at the June 26 performance in support of OutCenter Southwest Michigan.

The Prom is presented through special arrangement with, and all authorized performance materials are supplied by, Theatrical Rights Worldwide 1180 Avenue of the Americas, Suite 640, New York, NY 10036. www.theatricalrights.com.

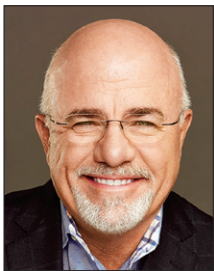

The show is directed by Jacob Holmes who is assisted by Assistant Director Alexandra Newman, Music Director Lane Alsup, Choreographer Cassidy Vlietstra, Stage Manager Mikayla Mennito, Assistant Stage Manager Kyle McAndrew, Costumer Cassi Holmes, Set Design Laura Gilligan, Set Construction Dan Gilligan, Light Design Scott Bradford, Sound Tech Liam Diefenbach, Set Painting Cindy Jakeway, Props Kaley Schmidt, and Intimacy Coordinator Cassidy Vlietstra.

Cast members include Liv Abram, Lucy Smith, Mikaela McLaughlin, David Ferrell, Scott Bradford, Mandy Mileham, Will Flaherty, Michelle Miller, Jarad Medukas, Nora Bomar, Marie W., Noah Kasuba, Charles Larson, Frankie Wood, Elisabeth B., Cate Christinidis, Marcus W., and Ian S.

2025-2026 Mainstage Season Sponsors are Bradford Insurance Agency, The Herald Palladium, Lake Michigan Chiropractic, Trilogy Counseling, Glenn & Kathy Ward Charitable Trust, Indiana Michigan Power's Cook Nuclear Plant, and Five Star Heating & Air Conditioning. Show Sponsors are Glenn & Kathy Ward and Berrien

Community Foundation. About Twin City Players Formed in 1932, Twin City Players is a volunteer based nonprofit organization that strives to engage the community in quality theatre that changes lives and to be recognized for organizational excellence producing quality performances in southwest Michigan. The Ramsey Show

Dave Says
Some People Will Never Like It... Or Understand

Dear Dave,
My husband and I are 38 years old. We're completely debt-free, we each have great jobs with honest, conscientious companies, and we're doing very well financially. We tithe regularly to our church, and we try to give wisely to civic groups and non-profit organizations in the area. We don't talk a lot about this kind of stuff, because we've found it sometimes causes others to treat us differently. Believe me, we both understand how incredibly blessed we've been. We always try to give God the credit, and not brag as if we did it all ourselves. Do you think there's a better way we could be handling our situation?
Amanda
Dear Amanda,
When you start building wealth and achieving some of your goals, you discover pretty quickly there's a very small group of people you can celebrate with. It sounds like you've learned this already.
Lots of times there are friends, and even family members, you can't celebrate with because it comes off as bragging—even if you're just happy you've reached a milestone. So, you learn to keep stuff private and not even share the good things. Still, if you have a nice car or a beautiful home, these things can indicate you're successful. Even if they're a small percentage of your financial world, it will sometimes generate feelings of jealousy or envy in other people.

Jealousy is, "I want what you have." Envy is, "I don't think I can have what you do, so I don't want you to have it either." These are two really bad spirits, and they're loose in our country today like never before. Part of the price of making smart decisions, and being wise with your money, is that some people don't like it when you win or understand why you win. And they don't think it's fair that they're not winning, too.
The truth is you guys have every right to enjoy the fruits of your labor. You've earned it. You're generous, successful people, and you're under no obligation to explain your income, net worth or the fact that you're winning.
And you're not obligated to be ashamed of it, either.
— Dave

Done yet?

“You scratch my back and I’ll scratch yours.” “There’s no such thing as a free lunch.” “If you aren’t growing, you’re dying.” We hear a lot of things like this in life. They are meant to drive us into action, but action that is done only to receive some sort of reward.

It is easy to fall into the same ways of thinking in Christianity. “Yes, salvation is all from God, but you still have to...” “But you have to believe.” “As long as you repent.” “God is your Savior, but have you accepted him as Lord?” These statements have good intentions to lead to action, but all of them put the burden of salvation back onto our shoulders and off those of the One who carried the cross. They indicate that there is some higher level of Christianity that only those who work hard enough will achieve greater things in life.

All of it leads back to Satan’s lie he loves to whisper: “You are not good enough, so you must make yourself better before God loves you.” Working harder at following God can slowly replace the work he did for you. You trust yourself to work your own peace instead of letting God work to save you.

Does God save you, or do you save you? One of the ways God saves you is by baptism. “Baptism now saves you—not the removal of dirt from the body but the guarantee of a good conscience before God through the resurrection of Jesus Christ.” (1 Peter 3:21). God saves you. Period. (I know I already put a period there, but I wanted to emphasize that that is the end.) You are not dirty.

You are clean. God removed your sin. Your conscience is clear before God. It is all certain because of the resurrection of Jesus.

So what do you have to do? Nothing.

Why is this so good? Because it is so tiring, this race to always be better. You work. You strive. You try over and over again. If the better life was all on you, wouldn’t your life be much better by now with all the effort you’ve put into it? But you still have the gnawing sense of “unfinished” all the time.

It is also so depressing to think of my mountain of failure when I am constantly hearing that I should be improving. Sure, I get better at some things, but then there are those items on the “to do” behavior list that I just avoid because even starting one feels daunting.

Wouldn’t it be nice to be free from the endless hamster wheel of self-improvement? God does this for you. He saves you. Period. That’s it. It’s all done. Finished. Complete. You don’t add anything to it. You are already good in God’s sight.

Now anything you do is no longer obligation. Instead, it is done in freedom. Attempting to tackle temptation is energized because you’re already good before God. Handling your anger so you can better love people becomes a joy rather than a burden. Being generous becomes second nature because God is so generous with you.

You don’t need to scratch God’s back before he scratches yours. He gave you more than a free lunch, food for eternal life. It cost a lot: the life of his Son. But since he was willing to pay it, you must be worth it.

We feel better getting busy when well rested. When was the last time you rested in God’s complete work of saving you?

Prayer: Loving Lord, help me rest today. Refresh me with the cool water of life you give to me. Help me see you and you alone as the source of my peace and rest. Amen.
